INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

LIVE THE LITURGY

For three days, Mary and Joseph search and worry before finding Jesus in the temple. "Didn't you know where I was?" he says to them, in so many words. We, too, look for Jesus. We, too, know where to find him. Let us never forget and never despair.

VIV LITIJI AN

VIVIR LA LITURGIA

Durante tres días, María y José buscan y se preocupan antes de encontrar a Jesús en el templo. "¿No sabían dónde estaba?", les dice, en pocas palabras. También nosotros buscamos a Jesús. Nosotros también sabemos dónde encontrarlo. Nunca olvidemos y nunca desesperemos.

THE HOLY FAMILY

As a first-time pastor in a parish, I received a phone call one afternoon from a young married couple, "Father, our 2-year-old son drowned in our pool this morning. We are at the hospital. Please help us." I sped over. The little boy was gone, his body cold, slightly blue, laid out on a bed. His parents were distraught and in shock. For the next few years, I walked with the couple along their difficult and painful road. They openly shared with me how they were often tempted to blame and accuse each other for the loss. And yet, by God's grace, their love for each other grew stronger and deeper as the years went by.

The Holy Family was not without its pain and loss, either. Luke tells us, after losing their twelve-year-old son, Joseph and Mary "after three days found him in the temple area, sitting among the teachers..." (Luke 2:46). We don't know specifically what those three days were like for them except for what Mary says: "Your father and I have been looking for you anxiously." The three days of his absence foreshadow his death and burial. His finding in the temple is a kind of resurrection for his family. They had to learn, again and again, that their family was becoming a place where death and resurrection was not only accepted but welcomed and celebrated. But surely they deeply felt the dangerous agony of their loss — just like every couple who has lost a child.

What losses in your experience of family still cause you anxiety? In what ways has God's presence seemingly vanished in your family? Will you keep searching for Jesus? Remember, he will rise and be found. Your family may be suffering, but when he is found, it will be stronger than ever before. - Father John Muir

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

WHERE IS JESUS?

Every mother who has ever lost sight of her child in a crowd, even for a few seconds, knows the panic.

I think of Mary living with that level of anxiety for three straight days. I doubt she slept, but I'm sure Joseph forced her to lie down at night, imploring her to think of her health, to rest while he kept on searching the streets of Jerusalem. I imagine her lying there, eyes open and staring at the ceiling. Mary, full of grace. Mary, spotless of sin. Weeping in the dark, whispering, "Where is he?"

PRAYER FOR FAMILY

Dear God,
Help my family to be holy, too!
AMEN

It's an experience that we all have at one point or another. Running through the world, desperate and confused, just trying to find God and failing so miserably that we wonder if He's purposefully eluding us.

If Mary couldn't even find Him, do we stand a chance?

Why didn't Mary think to look in the temple? She had wisdom beyond anyone else who ever lived, at least when it came to Jesus. But I think God purposefully dropped a veil over her reasoning for these three days, so that He could show us it's okay to lose our way.

He isn't eluding us. In fact, He's trying to make it easy. He's staying put, in one place, the very place we should know to look. But the streets of our life are so crowded and loud, so full of distraction.

The Christmas season is about God revealing to us who and what and where He is. He has told us. The question is, have we listened?

ANSWER:

JESUS' GRANDPARENTS

Question: July 26 is the feast of Joachim and Anna. Who are they and what do we know about them?

Answer: Joachim and Anna are the parents of Mary, the mother of Jesus, yet there is absolutely no biblical reference to them whatsoever. So where do we get their names, and what is their story?

Their names are found in an apocryphal (hidden) gospel known as "The Infancy Gospel of James." Apocryphal, or hidden gospels, consist of accounts of Jesus' life that were ultimately not accepted as inspired works, and thus were not included in the Bible. However, they sometimes captured the Christian imagination, spilling into the devotional dimension of the community.

James' infancy gospel begins with the parents of Mary and their desire for a child. In their prayer and petitions to God, they are heard and given the blessings of a child, whom they named Mary. While we have no idea who Mary's parents really were, the fact that we celebrate the feast of Joachim and Anna indicates that the bond of family love is important in the Christian life.

Long before Grandparents' Day was established, the church had a feast that honored the presumed grandparents of Jesus. While their names are part of non-inspired apocryphal legends, the fact of the Savior's human ancestry is not. Christ, the incarnate Word, dwelt among us in the flesh in a human family. In honoring the grandparents of Jesus we really proclaim our faith in the Incarnation — God becoming human!

REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

First Reading:

In gratitude to the Lord, Hannah returned the gift of her son, Samuel. Is there a gift from the Lord for which you are particularly grateful?

Second Reading:

As children of God, John teaches us that believers should love one another and believe in the name of Jesus. In addition to faith and love, what else do you think unites us as children of God?

Gospel:

Luke presents an anxious experience that Mary and Joseph had as parents raising the young boy, Jesus. Do you recall a time when your parents were worried or anxious about you?

FEAST OF THE HOLY FAMILY OF JESUS, MARY, AND JOSEPH

Resume the conversation

It happens all the time: The younger generation departs from traditional ways, while the older one wrings its hands and predicts the end of the world. The kids are abandoning our values, mistrusting our institutions, taking terrible risks, and setting out in a dark direction! Without a doubt, the turnover of each generation is the end of "a" world—that is, the one the rest of us knew, built, and got comfortable in. It is good to remember on this day that each family has to keep the lines of communications open, so that wisdom gets passed on and change becomes less scary. Holy families keep the conversation going. Start this year fresh with new conversations pertaining to your family for a holy year!

TODAY'S READINGS: Sirach 3:2-6, 12-14 or 1 Samuel 1:20-22, 24-28; Colossians 3:12-21 or 3:12-17 or 1 John 3:1-2, 21-24; Luke 2:41-52 (17). "Why were you looking for me? Did you not know that I must be in Father's house?"

Dimanch 29 Desanm 2024

GRAN FÈT FANMIY JEZI, MARI AK JOZÈK KI SEN

An nou reprann konvèsasyon sa.

Sa rive toutan: nouvo jenerasyon an pati kite ansyen tradisyon lafanmiy dèyè, pandan ansyen an ap souke tèt yo nan fè prediksyon sou mond la kap fini. Timoun sa yo ap abandone tout valè nou yo, yo pa fè okenn enstitisyon konfyans, yap pran tout kalite risk ak lavi yo kap mennen mond lan tonbe nan falèz. Sa pa gen dout, chak fwa yon jenerasyon pa aprann de yon lòt jenerasyon, se yon mond ki fini tankou yon tan ki pase. Se mond yon pòsyon nan nou te bati, te konnen, te santi nou byen ladan l' men ki pa la ankò. Kifè, pou anpeche gap la mennen nou nan bafon, pwòp jou fèt sent fanmiy an, li bon pou nou sonje se responsabilite chak fanmiy pou kenbe konvèsasyon kap pèmèt sajès ak pawòl granmoun ki konsekan yo pase de yon jenerasyon a yon lòt. Lè sa a tranzisyon an a fèt pi fasil, san koze laperèz. Fanmiy ki sen yo se fanmiy ki kenbe lyen kominikasyon yo louvri. Konsa, kòmanse nouvo ane sa-a ak konvèsasyon ki konsekan sou zafè fanmiy w, pou w pase yon ane ki sen.

LEKTI POU JODIYA : Eklesyas 3 :2-6, 12-14 ; Kolosyen 2 :12-21 ; Lik 2 :41-52. Poukisa n'ap chèche m konsa, nou pa te konnen fò se kay Papa mwen pou m' ta ye ?

FESTIVIDAD DE LA SAGRADA FAMILIA
DE JESÚS, MARÍA Y JOSÉ

Reanudar la conversación

Sucede todo el tiempo: La generación más joven se aparta de las formas tradicionales, mientras la generación mayor retuerce sus manos y predice el fin del mundo. ¡Estos chicos están abandonando nuestros valores, desconfiando de nuestras instituciones, tomando terribles riesgos y encaminándose en una dirección oscura! Sin duda, la rotación de cada generación es el fin de "un" mundo—es decir, el que el resto de nosotros conocíamos, construimos, y en el que estábamos cómodos. Es bueno recordarse en este día que cada familia debe mantener abiertas las líneas de comunicación, para que la sabiduría sea pasada y el cambio se vuelva menos aterrador. Las familias benditas mantienen viva la comunicación. Empieza este nuevo año con conversaciones importantes sobre su familia para un año santo !

LECTURAS PARA HOY: Eclesiástico 3:2-6, 12-14 o 1 Samuel 1:20-22, 24-28; Colosenses 3:12-21 o 3:12-17 o 1 Juan 3:1-2, 21-24; Lucas 2:41-52 (17). "¿Por qué me buscan? ¿No saben que debo estar en la casa de mi Padre?"
