WEEKLY PRAYER

DEAR ST. JAMES FAITHFUL

Our cherished sacred vessels play a vital role in our worship and the celebration of the Eucharist. Over the years, these items have shown signs of wear, and we are seeking to refurbish them to restore their beauty and dignity. We kindly ask for your support in helping to fund this important Project. $3,500.

ADVENT REFLEXION

BE VIGILANT

“Beware that your hearts do not become drowsy from carousing and drunkenness and the anxieties of daily life, and that day catch you by surprise like a trap. For that day will assault everyone who lives on the face of the earth. Be vigilant at all times Lk.21:34-36

VIGILAN

Pran prekosyon nou, pa kite banbòch, bweson ak traka lavi sa a chaje tèt nou pou jou a pa rive sou nou lè n' pa ta kwè. Paske, jou sa a ap tonbe tankou yon privye sou tout moun ki rete sou latè. Pa kite dòmi pran nou, lapriyè tout tan; Lk 21: 34-36

VIGILEN

Estén alerta, para que los vicios, con el libertinaje, la embriaguez y las preocupaciones de esta vida no entorpezcan su mente y aquel día los sorprenda desprevenidos; porque caerá de repente como una trampa sobre todos los habitantes de la tierra. Velen, pues, y hagan oración continuamente. Lc 21:34-36

1ST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

When I was a young priest, about one year after ordination, I was called to the hospital to anoint a dying mother of three young children. She had a painful, terminal cancer. After celebrating Last Rites with her, I said, “Don’t be afraid.” She looked me square in the eye from her hospital bed and said, “Oh Father, I am in a lot of pain, but I am not afraid. Something wonderful is about to happen.” A few days later she died.

Christians face the ending of our personal various “worlds” in a totally unique way. This first Sunday of Advent, Jesus says that when people see their world falling apart, they find themselves “fainting with fear and with foreboding of what is coming on the world” (Luke 21:26). In our fear, our natural response is to check out, to hide our heads in drunkenness, distraction, and false securities. But Jesus commands us to “look up and raise your heads, because your redemption is drawing near.” He then compares what’s coming to a lovely summer in full bloom. That’s what the cross and resurrection empower us to do, as strange as it may seem.

Advent challenge: What world in your life is collapsing? A relationship, a dream, a work opportunity? Maybe you’re troubled by a crumbling world in the political or economic sphere. Or maybe someone you love is seriously ill or dying. Name that world or worlds. Then pray: “Lord, help me to not faint with fear. Help me to raise my head and see your redemption coming.”

— Father John Muir

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

REMEMBERING ADVENT

It always makes me laugh a little, these apocalyptic Gospel readings that come at the beginning of Advent. What a funny juxtaposition — all of us stringing twinkie lights and wrapping presents, with Jesus thundering on about the end of the world. It's Christmas! Don't be a downer. Pour me some more eggnog and turn up the Nat King Cole.

Well, except it's not Christmas. It's Advent.

There's nothing wrong with the cultural accessories that have developed alongside this religious holiday. There's nothing wrong with the twinkie lights and the eggnog. But here's the thing: when Satan knows we're watching the front gate, he slips in the back door. And something I've found is that one back door he likes to use in my life is Cultural Christmas.

I love Cultural Christmas. I tend to overdo Cultural Christmas. I overschedule, I overdecorate, I overwhelm. All this "over" leads to — you guessed it! — overwhelm. "The anxieties of daily life," as Jesus describes in today's Gospel, make my heart drowsy. My spiritual Christmas joy, time and time again, is diminished — all because I embrace Cultural Christmas and ignore Advent. Satan sneaks in with the twinkie lights and the Christmas carols and he snatches The Present like the nasty little Grinch he is. He photobombs my experience of the religious holidays with the anxieties I so willingly embrace because of the production that is Cultural Christmas.

So, remember to rest this Advent, folks. Rest your heart. Rest your hands. Watch the back door and the front. Remember that this is the perfect time to be thinking about the state of your soul and not just the state of your house. (Even though, yes, I know, the guests are coming any minute.)

What is the difference between a cross and a crucifix?

ANSWER:

A crucifix always includes Christ's body and a cross does not.

CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

ADVENT WREATH

©LPI

Question: What's the story behind the Advent wreath?

Answer: Each season in the liturgical calendar comes with its own local and regional rituals. During the Advent season, wreaths adorn church sanctuaries and family dining room tables. You may have said Advent wreath prayers in childhood or taken a turn lighting the candles. The Advent wreath is full of symbolism about Christ and his coming at Christmas. The wreath is made of evergreen boughs, reminding us that the life of grace doesn't falter with the changing seasons. It always remains fresh and new. Similarly, a circular wreath reminds us of the eternal, never-ending nature of God's love.

Candles remind us that Christ is the light of the world, the One who "shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it." We use four candles to represent each week of Advent. Traditionally they come in the liturgical colors of the season. Purple has historically represented penance and sacrifice. We see the same color for the season of Lent. On the third Sunday of Advent, however, we light a rose color. The priest will wear rose vestments at Mass. This is Gaudete Sunday. Gaudete means "rejoice" in Latin. On the third Sunday of Advent, we're roughly halfway through the season. The Church chooses the midpoint to remind us to celebrate in the midst of our anticipation! Whatever the color and whatever the day, the Advent wreath is a beautiful practice to focus our attention on Christ's coming at Christmas.

REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

First Reading:

The prophet Jeremiah speaks of God's promise to save Jerusalem so all can "dwell safely" in the land. Where in your life do you feel the safest?

Second Reading:

In preparation for the return of Jesus, Paul prayed that the believers in Thessalonica would love one another and conduct themselves in a way pleasing to God. As we enter the season of Advent, what could you do to actively prepare for the return of Jesus?

Gospel:

Jesus forewarns his disciples not to let the daily anxieties of life distract them from the coming day of his return. Who helps you when you are overcome with anxiety? ©LPI

Mayordomía

Al comenzar este tiempo santo de Adviento, se nos recuerda que debemos preparar nuestros corazones para la venida de Cristo. Este tiempo es una oportunidad para reflexionar sobre cómo vivimos nuestra corresponsabilidad y nuestra respuesta al amor de Dios.

"Cuando estas señales empiecen a suceder, levántense y alcen la cabeza porque su redención está cerca" (Lucas 21:28)

Si el Señor Jesús regresara hoy, ¿podríamos nosotros, como corresponsables cristianos, rendir cuentas de cómo usamos Sus dones en esta vida para promover Su reino?

FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Light up the night

We begin the season of Advent today. It's intriguing to reflect on how Advent celebration of moving from the darkness of history into the light of Christ's coming. Light remains a symbol of spiritual illumination, abandoning the gloom of ignorance for knowledge and the shadow of foolishness for wisdom. As we string holiday lights and decorate with sparkling ornaments, let's consciously choose against error's dark deceptions, and ally ourselves with the light of truth. Happy New Liturgical Year!

PRIMER DOMINGO DE ADVIENTO

Iluminemos la noche

Hoy comenzamos el tiempo de Adviento. Resulta interesante reflexionar sobre el hecho de que el Adviento es una celebración prolongada del paso de la oscuridad de la historia a la luz de la venida de Cristo. La luz sigue siendo un símbolo de iluminación espiritual, que abandona la oscuridad de la ignorancia por el conocimiento y la sombra de la necedad por la sabiduría. Cuando colguemos las luces de las fiestas y decoremos con adornos brillantes, elijamos conscientemente no caer en los oscuros engaños del error y unámonos con la luz de la verdad. Feliz Año Liturgico Nuevo!

LECTURAS PARA HOY: Jeremías 33:14-16; 1 Tesalonicenses 3:12—4:2; Lucas 21:25-28, 34-36 (3).

"Estén \atentos en todo momento . . . para presentarse ante el Hijo del Hombre."

- * Consagre sólamente quince minutos al día en oración, y su fe se profundizará y crecerá — un día a la vez.
- * Invest just fifteen minutes a day in prayer, and your faith will deepen and grow— a day at a time.
- * Envesti kenz minit sèlman chak jou nan lapriyè, epi gade wa wè jan lafwa w ap vinn apwofondi, ap grandi yon jou alafwa.
